

Bridal Letter of Agreement

This is to confirm the Agreement between CLMmakeup (hereinafter referred to as “Consultant”) and _____ (hereinafter referred to as “Client”).

It is agreed that services will be rendered by “Consultant” on _____, from _____, at the following address: _____.

Total compensation for services rendered will be $_____. A 1/3 of the total is due as a deposit and payable to Carla Ligon-Miller (sole proprietor of CLMmakeup) upon signing agreement. This payment may be in the form of a Postal Money Order, Cash, Cashier’s Check, Personal Check or Credit Card (via Paypal, include the 2.9% + $0.30 USD transaction fee they charge, $3.20 on every $100). Personal checks are only accepted if received 2 weeks prior to services. The remaining balance is due two weeks before the day of services. If the “Client” terminates this Agreement for any reason after 24 hours, “Client” agrees to forfeit $150 retainer fee. If “Client” decides not use “Consultant” after the trail session, the $150 retainer fee is nonrefundable. If “Consultant” terminates this Agreement, “Client” will receive a full refund of deposit. If notification of cancellation and postponement is given less than 4 weeks before the scheduled wedding date, the client will be charged 100% of amount due.

In addition to the above stated, this Agreement also releases “Consultant” from all claims, actions, suits, and demands in relation to services rendered on all parties involved. It is hereby understood that these services will be explained in full detail to “Client” upon signing. If you have full understanding of and accept this Agreement, please sign and date below. Thank you for utilizing the services of CLMmakeup.
